

Billabong presents: Zillertal Vlley Rlley hosted by Ride Snowboards 2017/2018

Great final at Hintertux Glacier in Tux-Finkenberg: 28th-29th April 2018

A vast number of snowboarders from all over Europe gathered at the Betterpark Hintertux on Hintertux Glacier on April 28th and 29th, 2018 to hold the great final of the infamous Billabong presents: Zillertal Vlley Rlley hosted by Ride Snowboards 2017/2018. The last event of Austria's most popular snowboard amateur series was all about the overall win and crowning of the new Royal Zillertal Vlley Rlley Family 2018. Andreas MonEpic Monsberger has put the highlights together for you: <https://vimeo.com/267398019>

Around 100 riders showed up for the grand Billabong presents: Zillertal Vlley Rlley hosted by Ride Snowboards Finals in Tux-Finkenberg to rake in more Vlley Rlley overall points beside the last stage victory. The fourth and last event of the popular snowboard amateur series was finally all about the the crown. On the contest dy, snowboarders of all categories took it with changing winds and visibility to impress the judges and spectators at Betterpark Hintertux.

It was Patrick Cinca from Germany who succeeded to handle the conditions the best. He earned the Billabong Best Trick Award with his stylish Switch Backside 900 and took the gold medal in the men's contest. Katharina Kasper, also from Germany, took the top spot on the women's podium. while Czech high flyer Ladislav Hrstka and Germany's Annika Morgan were the winners of the rookie contest. Both Evy Poppe (BEL) and Gabe Adams (GBR) won the groms class and claimed overall victory with the last result from Hintertux. It was Amber Fennell from Team GBR, who took another gold medal in the Super Grom Girls category and became Queen of the Vlley 2018. Her team buddy Lenny Fenning did not only dominate the Super Grom Boys class, he also took home the „Most impressive Grom of the dy“ Award. In the end it was his countryman Charlie Lane, who won the crown as Super Groms overall tour winner.

For their overall victory, the freshly crowned Kings and Queens of the Vlley finally got rewarded the new Royal Zillertal Vlley Rlley Family. The titles came along with loads of honor, fame and trophy money. The new Kings and Queens 2018 are:

Men & Women:

Kings: 1. Felix Widnig (AUT) & 2. Pau Bardaji (ESP)

Queen: Anna Lora (AUT)

Rookies:

King: Roman Zanka (CZE)

Queen: Luca-Mai Lane Hopkins (GBR)

Groms:

King: Gabe Adams (GBR)

Queen: Evy Poppe (BEL)

Super Groms:

King: Charlie Lane (GBR)

Queen: Amber Fennell (GBR)

The full results and rankings are available at www.vallleyralley.at

Sunday's coaching dÄy was the mellow and perfect conclusion of another exciting Zillertal Vlley Rlley season. Cloudy skies could not keep the riders from having fun shredding the Betterpark Hintertux and the entire resort of Hintertux Glacier together. One last time, Ride Snowboards provided goodies for all riders at the very last Limbo Ride session and Tux-Finkenberg Tourism offered free soup and drinks for everyone to end the weekend properly.

Simone Krause from the department at Hintertuxer Gletscher is delighted about the successful tour finals: „It was a great pleasure to host the Zillertal Vlley Rlley finals at the Betterpark Hintertux. Despite challenging weather conditions, the event turned out to be a full success. We finally witnessed many happy Kings and Queens of the Vlley 2018.“

The Betterpark Hintertux will stay open and get shaped on a regular basis until the beginning of June.

All info at www.hintertuxergletscher.at

Partners of the 4th stage: Zillertal.at, Hintertuxer Gletscher, Betterpark Hintertux, TVB Tux-Finkenberg, Ride Snowboards, Billabong, Red Bull, Greenroom Mayrhofen, Dana Beanies, Black Eye Lens, N.ASA