

6. Zillertal VÄLLEY RÄLLEY hosted by Ride Snowboards

Countdown for the second tour stop at Zillertal Arena: 19th-20th January 2019

It's happening again! The second Zillertal VÄLLEY RÄLLEY hosted by Ride Snowboards tour stop will go down on January 19th and 20th, 2019 at Zillertal Arena. With the upcoming event, the Actionpark Kreuzwiese in Zell will turn into the stage of Zillertal's most popular Snowboard Amateur Series. The registration for freebie freestyle coachings and the open World Snowboarding slopestyle competition is open at www.valleyralley.at until Thursday, 17th of January. All motivated shred heads are more than welcome to sign up and get involved.

Preparations are getting serious at Zillertal Arena these days. Just in time for the second Zillertal VÄLLEY RÄLLEY stage hosted by Ride Snowboards, park designer Manfred Brandacher and his Uniqueparks.com shape team are working their magic to deliver a brand-new setup on Zell's Kreuzwiese. Depending on the weather, the Ästhetiker organizers will decide and communicate on Thursday, whether the contest will take place on Saturday or Sunday and which day the coaching will be happening. Ride Snowboards will be there on both days with the latest boards and bindings for free demo/testing. Snowboarders of all age groups and levels can look forward to an action-loaded weekend with funny side events such as the Limbo RIDE at Zillertal Arena.

While snowboarders will be practising in small groups on the bagjump and other lines of the snowpark on the coaching day, the action will go straight to the point on the contest day. That's when snowboarders from all over Europe will show off to earn valuable points on the international World Snowboard Point List (WSPL) and add VÄLLEY RÄLLEY points to their overall account at Zillertal Arena. The best trick will be rewarded by Billabong and all medalists will take home mad-prizes and prize money, beside all the applause, fame and glory.

With the second out of four results, there will appear interesting changes in the VÄLLEY RÄLLEY overall ranking and the overall winners will be crowned new Royal Zillertal VÄLLEY RÄLLEY family at the last tourstop in spring. The event in Zell am Ziller counts as a n.ASA (New Austrian Snowboard Association) Austriacup and all rookies gather points for the World Rookie Ranking. More info on <http://www.powdern.com>
